As you might have guessed, music, photos, videos, etc. you can transfer. I have to use a USB key to transfer the files, but sending the files to the TV handles everything wirelessly. To make the process transparent, you need to download this app on both your smartphone and Android TV. This app is a gift from God! Download Files Send to TV 2. Aptoide TV (Free) If you want to avoid geo-restrictions on your Android TV, Aptoide TV is the best app for you. You can download thousands of Android apps even if your TV is not compatible to install. This third-party app store is a great alternative to the Play Store, allowing you to access any app from anywhere! However, I advise you to be careful as some applications are not reliable. Download Aptoide TV 3. MX Player MX Player is the king of media players. I have been using it for over 8 years and it has not disappointed me! With support for subtitle files and the vast majority of codecs, there's no need to highlight MX Player. directlyFrom the UI to the UX or the option to allow local files or advertised entertainment. MX Player is equally great for both parts. MX Player is a must-have program on every device that supports it! Download MX Player 4. Netflix (Paid) Netflix is the de facto streaming site that makes watching a lot of fun. Therefore, it seems appropriate to add it to the list of Android TV apps. Most of us already know what Netflix is. Many don't know that it is one of the best video streaming services in the world serving 190 countries. The Android TV show enhances the Saturday movie atmosphere that we all watch on our phones and tablets. As someone rightly said, Netflix is streaming video where Spotify is music. The reputation of Netflix today, with great original content added daily and an endless list of movies! Download Netflix 5. Google Chrome (Free) I don't understand why web browsers aren't preinstalled? Why do you need a browser on a smart TV, you might ask. First, there's a lot more you can do with Android TV. You can browse the internet, gather more information and do anything on your phone, albeit on a much bigger screen! I am loading and working on my laptop screen. Also, the screen space changes my workflow a lot. If you are selling, you will need to install Google Chrome on Android TV as they are not in the Android TV game. Download Google Chrome 6. PLEX: Stream Free Movies and Watch Direct TV Many may argue that Plex is not like Kodi, but Plex is a powerful media center program. Plex's strength lies in its user interface - everything works. But first you need to know how the program works. To use Plex, you need to use a Plex Server on another computer that you can access from your Android TV over Wi-Fi. Once you install it, you can enable the export of any media file from your Plex server to your Android TV. This will eliminate file transfer without a cable. Download PlexTV 7. Spotify (Free & Paid) Spotify is one of the best music streaming services you can use. It's the best music program for me, but I have a free Apple Music subscription. Spotify works on any device you have installed and Android TV's usage is expanding and playlists are expanding. Spotify is basically a free music player, but if you don't want to listen to itAds, high steps are covered. I like that you can use an invoice on the routes. Spotify is a great app for your Android TV. Download Spotify TV 8. Kodi Kodi is of course the most powerful media server program. Kodi lets you control all your media remotely. The best part of this program is accessories, many of which. With this accessory, you can improve your Kodi experiences and enjoy fun as you want. Kodi is a program for those who want it. Download Kodi 9. Sling: Direct TV, shows and movies (free and free) SLING is a great application that offers a huge selection of direct TV channels. This includes news - local and international, sport, lifestyle, entertainment, etc. If you are looking for an alternative to a work cable, Slingv is an absolute choice. BBC, CNBC, Escen, NFL, Food Network and more. There are known offers from Slingva. Although the program is free of charge, you have to pay for a direct television service. It's the right price if you want your Android TV to be a reliable channel. Download SLING 10. Amazon Prime Video Amazon Prime Video gradually gains the popularity of Netflix as well as downloading on Android TV. Amazon Originals is a great source of entertainment for any type of audience.
